

Caleb

project in one sentence/phrase

what's the strongest part, and what's the thing which needs the most work?

comments on LOs

technical quality & ambition of your artefact/performance with regards to the fundamental concepts in music computing covered in this course

understanding and engagement with the design and performance challenges around computer music interfaces

scope for collaborative ensemble interaction in your performance

clarity of communication in your in-class demo presentation

George

project in one sentence/phrase

what's the strongest part, and what's the thing which needs the most work?

comments on LOs

technical quality & ambition of your artefact/performance with regards to the fundamental concepts in music computing covered in this course

understanding and engagement with the design and performance challenges around computer music interfaces

scope for collaborative ensemble interaction in your performance

clarity of communication in your in-class demo presentation

Chamith

project in one sentence/phrase

what's the strongest part, and what's the thing which needs the most work?

comments on LOs

technical quality & ambition of your artefact/performance with regards to the fundamental concepts in music computing covered in this course

understanding and engagement with the design and performance challenges around computer music interfaces

scope for collaborative ensemble interaction in your performance

clarity of communication in your in-class demo presentation

Max

project in one sentence/phrase

what's the strongest part, and what's the thing which needs the most work?

comments on LOs

technical quality & ambition of your artefact/performance with regards to the fundamental concepts in music computing covered in this course

understanding and engagement with the design and performance challenges around computer music interfaces

scope for collaborative ensemble interaction in your performance

clarity of communication in your in-class demo presentation

Kai

project in one sentence/phrase

what's the strongest part, and what's the thing which needs the most work?

comments on LOs

technical quality & ambition of your artefact/performance with regards to the fundamental concepts in music computing covered in this course

understanding and engagement with the design and performance challenges around computer music interfaces

scope for collaborative ensemble interaction in your performance

clarity of communication in your in-class demo presentation

Mike

project in one sentence/phrase

what's the strongest part, and what's the thing which needs the most work?

comments on LOs

technical quality & ambition of your artefact/performance with regards to the fundamental concepts in music computing covered in this course

understanding and engagement with the design and performance challenges around computer music interfaces

scope for collaborative ensemble interaction in your performance

clarity of communication in your in-class demo presentation

Josh

project in one sentence/phrase

what's the strongest part, and what's the thing which needs the most work?

comments on LOs

technical quality & ambition of your artefact/performance with regards to the fundamental concepts in music computing covered in this course

understanding and engagement with the design and performance challenges around computer music interfaces

scope for collaborative ensemble interaction in your performance

clarity of communication in your in-class demo presentation

Rhys

project in one sentence/phrase

what's the strongest part, and what's the thing which needs the most work?

comments on LOs

technical quality & ambition of your artefact/performance with regards to the fundamental concepts in music computing covered in this course

understanding and engagement with the design and performance challenges around computer music interfaces

scope for collaborative ensemble interaction in your performance

clarity of communication in your in-class demo presentation

Obi

project in one sentence/phrase

what's the strongest part, and what's the thing which needs the most work?

comments on LOs

technical quality & ambition of your artefact/performance with regards to the fundamental concepts in music computing covered in this course

understanding and engagement with the design and performance challenges around computer music interfaces

scope for collaborative ensemble interaction in your performance

clarity of communication in your in-class demo presentation